Best Coffee Mugs No Worries Café

Who'd have thought you'd need to stop off in Summit Park to find Utah's most attractive coffee mugs?

They're made by Summit Park potter Bruce Larrabee and those handmade mugs are just one of the attractions at No Worries Café, Chef Dante Eggan's high-altitude eatery.

Breakfast and lunch draw an eclectic crowd to No Worries for popular dishes like the Hack Attack, Dante's Inferno, and what might just be the best cheeseburger in Summit County.

But be sure to finish up with a cup of coffee, served in those marvelous mugs.
